

~~FILED~~ CREDITS and WORKS CITED

from various headlinks
government documents
Hemlock Harris
Fauci, B.C.

about people with AIDS.
"Unlabeled" Hyman Dead! collages, such as
many such photos in his Wojnarowicz incorporated from a deathbed photo
by David Wojnarowicz.

Plague figures
based on the figures from the cover for
Stephen King's
"The Stand," by
John Cayea

The whole comic is of course based on that one trolley problem meme everyone makes edits of.
No one knows where it came from originally. Hell maybe, or 4chan.

art and words
by Samantha Zoe
mostly composed
during January 2022

Happy 2 years pandemic

paraphrased from
"Slicing the Soda Item"
in Postcolonial Theory

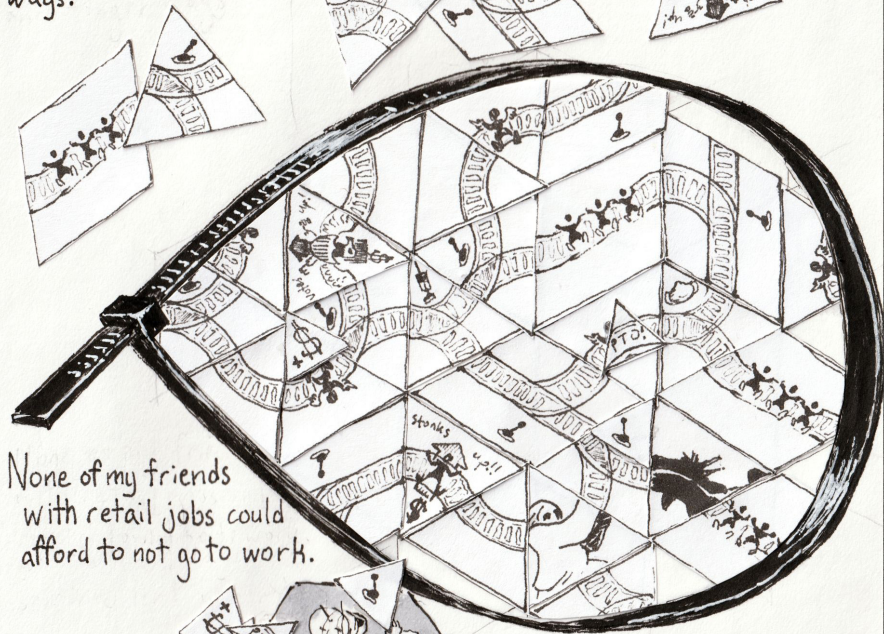

my fursona
aged, first tax-
onomized by
China Mielville
in "We are All Thomas"
More's children

Philosophers, like
Editorial Cartoonists,
love simple allegor ies
by which they distribute head pats and finger
wags.

They love games,
and the people who
play well -

all within the ruleset
they create.

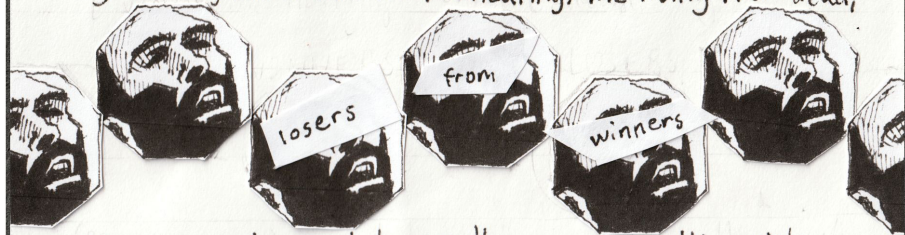

None of my friends
with retail jobs could afford to not go to work.

Most people I know got sick.

sick.

sick.

Severing the sick from the healthy, the living from dead,

seems more immoral to me than merely getting sick.

Nivedita Majumdar
cautions against
politics that confuse
genuine resistance

with the things we
do to preserve our lives and dignity in
the face of horror

things that take
the structure of
that horror as given.

Making the best of a bad situation can be heroic.

But
dominant
ideology insists
"Making Do" is
the highest
we can
aspire to.

Oh well.

Our Covid rhetoric resurrects the hoary old American tradition of Calvinist derangement. Sinners on the tracks of an angry God.

In a truly free society/market, you master your own salvation. Get that good word!

Our Covid rhetoric resurrects the hoary old American tradition of Calvinist derangement. Sinners on the tracks of an angry God.

In a truly free society/ market, ^{you} master your own salvation. Get ^{that} good word!

